EXCLUSIVE TRAVEL ORGANISERS AROUND THE WORLD ARE RAISING THE BAR OF LUXURY TRAVEL.

By means of exclusive private jet excursions, they organise spectacular itineraries, luxurious accommodations, gourmet meals and true insider experiences. The price itself is an assurance of what kind of people you will travel with or meet on these journeys. And the most precious of all commodities — time — is saved so each exotic destination and experience can be savoured fully. Each of the tours below can also cater to specific interests to assure they are tailor-made for each participant.

FOUR SEASONS JET

The concept was first introduced in 2012 for guests staying at Four Seasons properties worldwide. Fast-forward to today, and the hotel chain has launched the Four Seasons Jet. The hotel industry's first fully branded private jet seats 52 guests and is equipped with leather

REMOTE LANDS

A seven-day tour of scenic Mongolia awaits guests who enjoy being outdoors, beginning in the capital of Ulaan Baatar. The itinerary heads to the East Gobi Desert on board an Embraer Lineage 1000 jet that accommodates only 18 guests. From there it is off to spend a few days in Ikh Nart, a nature reserve that harbours a wide diversity of plant and animal species. Here, visitors can spot the famous Argali sheep and long-horned Siberian ibex. The itinerary includes meeting local herders and experiencing traditional Mongolian life by staying in comfortable native camps. Finally, it's off to the Khan Khentii wildlife preserve to explore the pasture land by foot, raft or horseback. remotelands.com
